Eulogy Of | The Late Moses Njihia Gichimu

BIRTH

The Late Moses Njihia Gichimu was born in the year 1956 in the village of Wandemi by his parents the late Gichimu Njonjo and the late Ruth Waithira Gichimu. He was born among siblings: the late Margaret Wanjiku Ndung'u, Charles Chege Gichimu, and John Ngigi Gichimu. He was their firstborn child.

CHILDHOOD

On his childhood, Moses assisted his parents with domestic chores, farming, and other work that was typical of that time.

EDUCATION

The Late Moses Njihia Gichimu began his education in 1965 at AIM Kagwe (now Karugo Primary School), where he studied up to Standard Seven and sat for the CPE (Certificate of Primary Education) exams in 1973, which he passed.

He later joined Gatamaiyu High School in 1974 and completed in 1977 after sitting for the EACE (East African Certificate of Education), which he also passed.

CIRCUMCISION

The Late Moses Njihia Gichimu underwent circumcision in 1973.

WORK

He began working at the Ministry of Public Works in the Supplies Department in 1980 at the Nairobi Headquarters. In 1985, he was transferred to Garissa as a Supply Officer, where he worked until 1995.

After that, he was appointed Director at Kagwe Tea Factory in 1996, a position he held until 2002. Afterward, he engaged in personal business and farming.

MARRIAGE

The Late Moses Njihia Gichimu got married to his beloved wife Mary Wambui Njihia in 1986 in a traditional Kikuyu wedding.

They were blessed with their firstborn son James Gichimu Njihia and later with two more children: Paul Kungu and Ruth Waithera Njihia.

CHURCH

The Late Moses Njihia Gichimu was introduced to church by his parents at a young age and was baptized in 1971 by Reverend Jonathan Wanyoike Mburu.

He rededicated his life to Christ in 2020. He was a devoted elder in the A.I.C (Africa Inland Church).

ILLNESS AND DEMISE

The Late Moses Njihia Gichimu began feeling unwell in May 2025. He was admitted for treatment at various hospitals including Kijabe Mission Hospital, Kijabe County Referral Hospital, and Kenyatta University Teaching and Referral Hospital, where he ultimately succumbed.

He passed away on June 6th, 2025, at the age of sixty-nine (69) years. He is survived by his wife, three children, and grandchildren.

It is the Lord who gave Moses Njihia Gichimu, it is he who came to take him back.
May the name of the Lord be praised. AMEN

Acknowledgment

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who stood with us during this difficult time.To those who visited and comforted us, to those who supported us with your time, prayers, food, donations and thoughtful gifts, to our Christian family for your unwavering spiritual support,
To our relatives, neighbours and dear friends. Your love and kindness gave us strength and helped us give Moses the dignified farewell he truly deserved.

Please accept this as our personal and collective expression of thanks. Your presence, care, and contributions will always be remembered with deep appreciation.

"May you live every day of your life, loving each moment you live."

Tribute from Wife – Mary Wambui Njihia

My dear husband Moses,
You were my partner in love, my friend, and the pillar of our home. You loved me with gentleness, led our family with wisdom, and built our life with care and strength.
It is still hard to believe that you are truly gone — you left without saying goodbye.
I thank God for the many years we shared and for the love that never wavered. I pray that you rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord.
You will always be in my heart.
Rest well, my love, until we meet again.

Tribute from Children – James, Paul & Ruth

To our beloved father,
You were a guiding light, a strong and loving hand, and our greatest role model.
You raised us with discipline and warmth, taught us the value of honesty, hard work, and prayer.
You celebrated our wins and lifted us during struggles.
You were more than just a father — you were our hero.
Though you are gone from our sight, your teachings and your love remain with us.
We will live to honour your name and your legacy.
We love you Dad.

Rest in perfect peace.

Tribute from Siblings

To our dear brother Moses,You were a brother like no other dependable, wise, and full of compassion.You led with humility and gave generously to all around you.In every family challenge, you were the calm voice of reason and the first to offer help.Your absence has left a space no one can ever fill.We are comforted to know you are in a better place, free from pain.Your legacy lives on in our hearts.Rest well, dear brother.

We will miss you forever.

Tribute from Grandchildren

To our loving Guka

You were our friend, our storyteller, our protector, and our biggest fan.We will never forget the way you smiled when you saw us, the way you called our names, and how you always asked if we had eaten.You made us laugh with your jokes, and you taught us to pray and to respect others.Your hugs were full of warmth and safety.Though we are still young, we know we were deeply loved by you.We will miss your voice, your wisdom, and your presence.Rest with the angels, Guka.

We love you always.
