Acknowledgement

Your heartfelt guidance and sincere expressions of sympathy to each of us is genuinely appreciated. The extra measures of assistance you and your support provided for us all is prized and will not be soon forgotten. I am amazed at your patience with us as we stumbled along, seemingly in a fog, at times. You valued our grief and, without judgement, allowed us to express it in our own ways and on our own schedule. Yes, Maich would have enjoyed meeting you...and she would have liked you, too.

Remember me when I am goneaway, Gone far away into the silent land; When you can go no more hold me by the hand,

Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay. Remember me when no more day by day You tell me of our future that you planned:

Only remember me; you understand It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me

Tributes

From Your Loving Parents
It is with a very heavy heart that we accept God's will. As our youngest child, we were so used to seeing you around, sharing laughter, love, and countless precious moments together.
You always looked after us, especially when we faced health challenges. You made sure everything was taken care of and that we never lacked support or comfort. Your love and dedication were a true blessing.
Even though you are no longer here, our love for you remains strong. We will miss you deeply and carry you in our hearts forever.
With all our love,
Mom and Dad

A Tribute to My Brother
Growing up with you was a gift filled with laughter, fun, and unforgettable memories. You were not just my brother, but also my closest confidant, the person I could always turn to in times of joy and in times of struggle. Your selflessness and constant presence made me feel supported and loved, no matter what life threw our way.
You were hardworking and driven, always focused on building a bright future. I admired your determination and the big plans you had for yourself and those around you. It's hard to imagine that those dreams will remain unfinished.
Though we accept God's will with heavy hearts, the pain of your absence is deep. I will forever miss your kindness, your strength, and the warmth you brought into my life. You may be gone, but your spirit and the love we shared will live on in my heart forever.
Rest peacefully, my dear brother. I love you, always.

To Our Uncle
You were the nicest and most generous uncle. You were fun and always made us happy. We loved riding on your motorbike with you. You took us to the supermarket and let us pick anything we wanted.
Even though you were our uncle, you were also our friend. We will miss you a lot and always love you.
From your nephews and nieces

To Our Dear Cousin
You made every visit to your home so memorable and full of warmth. You always made sure that when we left, we carried with us fresh farm produce in season; a special gift that showed your caring heart. You were welcoming and charming, and the way you saw us off every time we visited is something we will never forget.
You stayed close even when we were apart, always checking in through messages on social media just to see how we were doing. Your kindness and thoughtfulness meant so much to us.
We would have loved to see what the future held for you, but God's will was done. We will miss you forever and hold you dearly in our hearts.
With love,
Your cousins
